CELEBRATING 20 YEARS

WINTER 2010 COLLECTION

2010 is a particularly special year for Susan Holmwood as we are celebrating 20 years.

In 1991 Susan Holmwood established what has become a highly regarded niche business adored by many women right across Australia.

Over the years the incisive director Susan Holmwood herself, has moved her designs and expanded her collection through the times, always remaining Australian made.

With an eager understanding of subtle changes in classical womens fashion and client desires, this is cleverly adapted to each season's collection providing the customer with incomparable quality, style and service.

At Susan Holmwood we believe there is no substitute for quality, nor superior everlasting design and nothing like the feel of the finest Italian fabrics against your skin. We take great pleasure in offering this luxury to the discerning shirt lover.

We have a unique, strong and well respected client base that has developed over the years and we would like to share our deep appreciation for those loyal customers who have allowed this label to come so far, thank you. We hope you enjoy the 2010 Winter collection.
